Ray San Jose

Ray was a man who had passion for the Rams and compassion for his colleagues
One who dedicated his life to the service of others
Unselfish, a man of unswerving loyalty. . .
That was Ray San Jose

His outlook was totally positive
He could be counted on to perform any task
With distinction and dignity

He was one of the most positive and popular men I've ever known
He always was up- -even when we were down

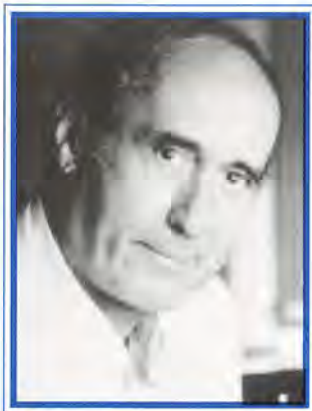

His cheerful devotion to duty was heartwarming
He was a team player in every way

He was a special friend and I miss him very much
He will always have a place in my heart

Georgia Frontiere

Henry Mancini

He wove musical tapestries for the world to enjoy
His legacy is the sound of harmony and love
His life was reflected in his work
His passion stirred generations

Music in the Mancini Manner was more than a catch-phrase
It was the sound and pulse of a people

He made us laugh, cry and exult
His strings plunged to the depth of our souls, his brass rook us to new heights

You always knew a Mancini melody
It was moody and moving
Or bold and brash
Or pixieish and playful
But always pleasing and poignant
Like Mancini himself

He was a friend for life, not a part-time acquaintance
He once told us, "Ours is not a seasonal friendship"
This was vintage Mancini, all or nothing at all

He contributed so much of himself — so open, so honest,
So humble and yet proud

His song has not ended
And his memory will linger forever

Georgia Frontiere, the Owner and Chairman of the Los Angeles Rams, is committed to providing pro football entertainment at its best and at the same time is dedicated to countless charitable endeavors which bear her indelible imprint.

As Georgia enters her 16th season as the Rams' Chief Executive Officer, she is proud of the team which has reached the NFL playoffs eight times, the Conference Championship three times and the Super Bowl once under her leadership. Following an active off-season, which included the acquisition of several coveted free agents and an outstanding corps of draftees, the Rams appear poised to make a serious run for postseason competition in 1994.

Philanthropy again was high on Georgia's list this year as she was honored with the Dwight D. Eisenhower Award for Humanitarianism, presented by the Los Angeles sister cities' group. She was also named to the Board of Directors for the American Air Museum in Britain. Georgia joins Charlton Heston, Bob Hope, James Stewart and a host of British dignitaries in the front rank of this noble cause. And The Ark Trust, Inc., an internationally-renowned agency which is dedicated to raising public consciousness about animal issues, selected Georgia Frontiere to its Board of Directors. The Ark Trust is founder of the Genesis Awards, which honors those in media and entertainment for outstanding achievement in animal rights issues.

Community activism and the support of numerous charities which improve the quality of life has always been a top priority for Georgia: 1) in 1991, she displayed her concern for youth by making an unprecedented $1 million donation to the Fulfillment Fund, an organization that involves more than 2,000 students who are selected as having college potential. 2) She has also underwritten scholarships in various fields of education at UCLA and USC, among other schools. 3) She is a Trustee of Chapman University in Orange and a Life Associate of Pepperdine University in Malibu.

All of this is a part of her commitment of helping others achieve their dreams. Perhaps her greatest dream is the establishment of a retirement home for ex-football players, coaches and front office staff similar to the Motion Picture Home in Woodland Hills.

In 1992, Georgia received the prestigious Ellis Island Medal of Honor. She was cited for her "community involvement and for having greatly contributed to our national identity while preserving the distinct values and heritage of her ancestors." She shared the award with, among others, General Norman Schwarzkopf, TV superstar Phil Donahue and author Gay Talese.

The needs of children are of particular interest to Georgia, who is on the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Boys' and Girls' Club in East Los Angeles as well as a Benefactor of the St. Jude Children's Research Center in Memphis. Also, the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America and the American Foundation for AIDS Research National Board. Other important causes she supports include the Fred Jordan Mission for homeless women and children of L. A.'s skid row; Los Angeles Times Charities (Rams/Times Charity Game and the Los Angeles Times Fund Golf Classic, presented by Georgia Frontiere), and St. John's Ambulance Brigade in Great Britain.

Georgia is also a member of the NFL Alumni Board of Governors and is on the Board of NFL Properties, the marketing and merchandising arm of the National Football League.

Artistic involvement has always held high priority in the life of Georgia Frontiere. She is a Patron of the Los Angeles Music Center and a member of the Golden Horseshoe of the Metropolitan Opera. To add to her community involvement, she is a member of the Boards of the Los Angeles Music Center Opera Guild, New York's Collegiate Chorale and the Advisory Board of the Master Chorale of Orange County. She recently created an art school scholarship which is awarded to a young artist in a national competition to design the Rams' Media Guide cover.

Georgia is the mother of two children, son Dale Rosenbloom (who is married to the former Kathleen Melville) and Lucia Pamela Rodriguez (who is married to Lupe Rodriguez). She has five grandchildren, William, Stuart, Andrew and Lauren Rodriguez, ages 11, 9, 6 and 2, and Alexander Rosenbloom, age 1.

CHUCK KNOX*Vice President/Head Coach*

On a career path that leads to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, Chuck Knox has achieved numerous distinctions, most important of which has been his ability to rescue struggling teams. Knox is the only coach in the 75-season history of the NFL to win division championships for three different franchises.

Rams Owner and President Georgia Frontiere appointed Knox the eighteenth head coach of the Rams January 8, 1992, and Knox immediately set about rebuilding the team. The Rams defeated the eventual Super Bowl XXVII champion Dallas Cowboys 27-23 during the season to finish with a 6-10 record. The victory total doubled that of the 1991 squad.

Despite an injury-plagued 1993 season in which 21 players missed a combined total of 98 games, the Rams continued to build a contending team. Jerome Bettis, the Rams' number one draft choice in 1993, and Sean Gilbert, their top pick in '92, each made the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

Knox originally showed the ability to bring teams back when he became the fifteenth Rams head coach. The Rams posted a 54-15-1 record from 1973-77 and won five consecutive NFC West championships. Knox also won division titles in 1980 at Buffalo and in 1988 at Seattle. His Rams, Bills, and Seahawks teams have qualified for the playoffs 11 times and won at least 10 regular-season games nine times.

Knox's 182 regular-season victories rank sixth all time. Knox and Paul Brown are the only NFL coaches to win division titles in each of their first five seasons. Knox in 1992 became the sixth to be a head coach in 300 NFL games. Knox in 1992 became the eighth 20-season head coach in NFL history. Knox is one of nine coaches who have inherited losing teams and taken them to the playoffs in their first season. Knox is the only coach to do it twice.

The Rams were 6-7-1 in 1972 and rebounded to 12-2 under Knox in 1973. The Seattle Seahawks were 14-27 in the three previous seasons but rebounded to 9-7 under Knox, qualified for the playoffs, and reached the AFC Championship game in 1983. The Buffalo Bills were 5-28 in the two seasons prior to Knox's arrival but went 11-5 in 1980, Knox's third season, and won the AFC East for the first time since 1966.

"You have to be willing to adjust to the times," Knox has said of his tenure. "Situation substitution, throwing the ball a lot more, the shotgun formation, multiple offensive sets, using different defensive schemes...from the four-man line when we were here before to the three-man line and now back to the four-man line...dealing with the new concept of free agency...."

Knox has been NFL Coach of the Year four times, with the Rams in 1973, with Buffalo in 1980, and with Seattle in 1983 and '84. Knox also was AFC Coach of the Year, as designated by United Press International, Football News, Vince Lombardi Committee, Seattle Gold Helmet Committee, and Kansas City 101 Club in 1983. He was AFC Coach of the Year in 1984, as chosen by UPI and the Professional Football Writers' Association.

Knox was a pro assistant coach for 10 seasons before coming to the Rams in 1973. He was offensive line coach of the New York Jets from 1963-66 and also scouted college players and helped sign collegiate stars such as Joe Namath during the rivalry between the NFL and American Football League. Knox became an NFL assistant coach when he moved to the Detroit Lions as offensive line coach in 1967. He remained with the Lions through 1972.

Knox's coaching career began in 1954 at his alma mater, Juniata College in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania. Knox was an assistant at the high school in Tyrone, Pennsylvania, in 1955 and head coach at Ellwood City High from 1956-58. He became a collegiate coach in 1959 at Wake Forest University, then moved to Kentucky for the 1961 and '62 seasons.

Knox was graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in history from Juniata College after earning four football letters as a tackle and serving as the team's co-captain his senior year. Knox received the school's National Alumni Achievement Award in 1974, serves on the college's Board of Directors, and was accorded an honorary doctorate in 1983.

Knox was born April 27, 1932, in Sewickley, Pennsylvania, a community of 8,000 persons near Pittsburgh. He attended Sewickley High and established a $20,000 scholarship at the high school, renamed Quaker Valley High, in the name of childhood friend Dominic Roppa, who passed away in 1988. The high school and collegiate home fields on which Chuck played have been renamed in his honor: Knox Field at Quaker Valley High and Knox Stadium at Juniata. Knox in 1993 was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

JACK FAULKNER

*Administrator of Football Operations/
Director of Pro Personnel*
40th NFL Season
30th With Rams

Faulkner's responsibilities with the Rams as director of pro personnel are representative of six decades (1949-93) in football by one of the game's astute minds.

Faulkner came into the NFL in 1955 as secondary coach for the Rams after six seasons at the University of Cincinnati. Since joining the Rams 38 years ago, Faulkner has coached or coordinated all areas of defense and was the offensive backfield coach of the 1979 Rams team that won the NFC championship and played the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XIV. Faulkner was head coach and general manager of the Denver Broncos, and assistant coach for the San Diego Chargers, New Orleans Saints, Minnesota Vikings, and Rams. He also was director of player personnel for New Orleans and has been director of pro scouting and Assistant General Manager for the Rams.

The native of Youngstown, Ohio was American Football League Coach of the Year in 1962 with the Denver Broncos and secondary coach of the Chargers in 1961 when that group set a standing professional record with 42 pass interceptions in 14 games.

Faulkner was inducted into the Youngstown, Ohio, Hall of Fame in 1991 and also is a member of the Curbstone Coaches Hall of Fame in Youngstown. He was recipient of the Orange County Sports Hall of Fame's Lifetime Achievement and Good Guy awards and was 1991 Humanitarian of the Year, as chosen by Triple X Armenian, a group of charity-conscious Armenian-American businessmen in Orange County that Faulkner assisted in raising funds for the Orangewood Home for Abused Children.

The Jack Faulkner golf tournament each year benefits the American Diabetes Association. Faulkner also is honorary chairman of another tournament that benefits the Make-a-Wish Foundation of Orange County. Faulkner is vice president of the NFL Alumni, Orange County chapter, and is a member of the Orange County Sheriff's Advisory Council.

Faulkner and his wife, Betty, make their home in Costa Mesa and have two children, Cathy and Jon.

TANK YOUNGER

Director of Player Relations
46th NFL Season
44th With Rams

Tank Younger has pursued one of the most remarkable careers in sports. He was named Director of Player Relations for the Rams prior to the 1992 season. Younger is familiar with the position, one of many Younger has filled since he blazed a trail as a rookie running back and linebacker for the Rams in 1949 from virtually unknown Grambling State University in Louisiana.

Younger was the first player from a predominantly Afro-American southern university to play in the NFL. He earned the nickname "Tank" from Grambling's sports information director, who described the 235-pound fullback's running style as that of a Sherman tank. Younger was a member of the Rams' famed Bull Elephant backfield that included quarterback Bob Waterfield and running backs Dick Hoerner and Deacon Dan Towler and played on the 1950 and '55 teams that reached the NFL Championship game and on the 1951 team that won the championship.

Younger earned a Pro Bowl invitation as a running back and linebacker after the 1950 season. He was invited to five Pro Bowls and played in three, missing the 1951 game because of a military obligation and the 1954 game because of a knee injury.

Younger was traded by the Rams to Pittsburgh following the 1956 season. He concluded his playing career with the Steelers in 1957 and embarked on a career in business and as a part-time scout for the Rams in 1958. Tank became a full-time scout with the Rams in 1967 and in 1975 was named Assistant General Manager of the San Diego Chargers, for whom he handled a variety of administrative, player personnel, and business responsibilities.

Younger returned to the Rams in 1987 and has served principally in scouting players in black colleges, player signings, and team travel. He has continued to work in these areas and as a direct liaison with Rams' players.

Paul Lawrence Younger was born June 25, 1928, in Grambling, Louisiana. He spent much of his early life in Los Angeles but returned to Louisiana as a teenager. Tank and his wife, Lucille, a Los Angeles-based pediatrician, reside in the Lafayette Square section of Los Angeles. They have one son, Howard, a banking executive in Los Angeles, and two daughters. Harriette is an emergency room physician at Daniel Freeman Hospital in Inglewood. Lucy is employed by the County of Los Angeles as an environmental architect.

1937 On Feb. 13, the National Football League grants a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and Associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Hugo Bezdek is named head coach. As the league's rookie franchise, Rams finish with a 1-10-0 record. Bob Kelley is named radio play-by-play announcer at start of season.

1938 Assistant coach Art Lewis takes over team after three losses and Rams win three of remaining seven games.

1939 Earl "Dutch" Clark becomes head coach. Rams hit .500 mark for the first time with 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joins team as rookie tailback and wins Joe Carr Trophy as NFL's official Most Valuable Player.

1940 Team drops back to 4-6-1 record. Johnny Drake, powerful Ram fullback, is named to first team All-NFL.

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr. purchase Rams in June and hire Billy Evans as general manager. Team wins first two games but drops next nine to finish in cellar.

1942 Evans resigns before 1942 season. Charles "Chile" Walsh replaces Art Lewis as assistant coach. Lt. Reeves and Major Levy depart to enter armed forces. Bob Kelley is named club secretary. Team finishes 5-6-0.

1943 Clark resigns. Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime difficulties. Reeves buys out Levy.

1944 Chile Walsh becomes general manager and appoints Buff Donelli as head coach. Pickup team finishes 4-6-0.

1945 Donelli joins military service. Walsh names his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach. Third round draft choice (a future) Bob Waterfield from UCLA joins team as T-formation quarterback and leads Rams to 9-1-0 season for first divisional title in team's history. On icy field, Rams defeat Washington Redskins, 15-14, at Cleveland for world title. Waterfield becomes first player to receive unanimous vote for official NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh is named coach of the year. Eddie Kotal joins team as chief scout and Bill John begins 29-year tenure as business manager.

1946 Reeves moves franchise to Los Angeles early in the year. After disappointing 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resign.

1947 Reeves assumes duties of general manager. Bob Snyder is named head coach with Joe Stydahar as new assistant. Team is talent-heavy but injury-ridden in 6-6-0 season. Reeves sells part interests to former partner Levy and to Edwin and Harold Pauley and Hal Seley.

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joins staff as advisory coach. On Sept. 3, Snyder resigns and Clark Shaughnessy becomes head coach. Team wins four of last five to post 6-5-1 mark.

1949 Team wins first six games then hangs on to win first divisional title since moving west. Heavy rain holds down L.A. crowd as Philadelphia Eagles skid to 14-0 win over Rams in NFL title game. Rookie Norm Van Brocklin joins team and gives Rams top-notch one-two quarterback punch. Elroy Hirsch has fine rookie year.

1950 NFL absorbs AAFC, leaving Rams as lone pro team in Los Angeles after four years of two-league existence. In February, Stydahar becomes head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. Club opens new offices on Beverly Boulevard. Bill Granholm begins 18-year tenure as equipment manager. Team sets 22 league records in rolling to conference title tie. Waterfield and end Tom Fears lead playoff win over Bears, 24-14, but following week in Cleveland, Lou Groza's late field goal stops Rams' title hopes, 30-28.

1951 Rams win third straight conference title on final day of season, then defeat Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on 73-yard pass, Van Brocklin to Fears, for first world title since moving to Los Angeles.

1952 After team loses three straight preseason games and drops league opener by big score, Stydahar resigns. He is replaced as head coach by Hamp Pool. Team loses two of next three, but wins last eight to tie for conference title. Rams lose playoff in Detroit. Rams trade 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter, who then enters Army for two years. Waterfield retires.

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passes away. Team compiles 8-3-1 record, losing three games by total of eight points to finish third in conference. Rams defeat world champ Lions in both games.

1954 Bonus choice Bill Wade and tradee Les Richter both join Rams as rookies two years after going from college into military service. Team has disappointing 6-5-1 mark. All assistant coaches resign. Pool soon follows suit.

1955 On Jan. 26, Rams hire Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. Fine defensive year and clutch field goal kicking by Richter give team hard-fought 8-3-1 record for conference title. Cleveland wins title game at Coliseum 38-14.

1956 In form reversal, team loses five consecutive early-season games and finishes in cellar tie with 4-8 record.

1957 Ram owners name former Ram publicist Pete Rozelle as general manager. Team loses squeakers on road to 49ers and Lions, finishing 6-6-0, but only two games behind conference leaders.

1958 In preseason trade, Van Brocklin goes to Eagles. Bill Wade sets many Ram passing marks en route to 8-4-0 year.

1959 Team has general letdown and many injuries for worst season since 1937, finishing 2-10-0. Ollie Matson, acquired in big trade, is workhorse at fullback. On last day of season, Gillman and staff resign.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle is named NFL commissioner. Elroy Hirsch replaces Rozelle as Rams general manager. Bob Waterfield is named Ram head coach. Team finishes 4-7-1.

1961 Rams trade Bill Wade, Del Shofner, John Guzik for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow and 1962 first draft choice, which makes it possible to draft both Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen. Revamped Rams finish strongly after slow start, but still show 4-10-0 deficit.

1962 Rams lose four of first five games by narrow margins, then show only occasional surges of success en route to 1-12-1 year. Waterfield resigns after eighth game. Harland Svare named interim head coach. On Dec. 27, in closed auction, Reeves reacquires control of Rams, purchasing full interests of co-owners Pauley, Levy, Seley and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sells 49% interest in Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare is retained. Les Richter retires before season. After 0-5 record, Gabriel is reinstated as starting QB and plays last nine games without relief, guiding team to 5-4 mark and season record of 5-9-0.

1964 Rams sign 10-year pact to play in "new look" Coliseum's "stadium-within-a-stadium." Fourteen rookies make the season squad. Club finishes fifth with 5-7-2 record.

1965 After winning only one of first 10, Rams take three of last four against top two teams in each conference, but Svare is dismissed.

1966 After a court fight, George Allen is released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears to become head coach of the Rams. NFL and AFL merge in spring. Bob Kelley, "Voice of the Rams" since the club's beginning in 1937, dies in September. Team finishes 8-6.

1967 After 17 years on Beverly Boulevard, club moves to new building on Pico. Training camp is also moved to California State College at Fullerton after five years at Chapman College in Orange. Equipment manager Bill Granholm leaves club after 18 years to take position in league office. Rams record first unbeaten preseason in history with six wins, including victories over first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. Team completes finest win-loss season ever with 11-1-2 league record to win Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955, then loses to Green Bay 28-7 in Western Conference Championship Game.

1968 After playoff win over Cleveland in January, team finishes regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1 mark. Attendance is over one million for second straight year and Ram defense sets new 14-game NFL record for fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen is dismissed as head coach, but is re-hired two weeks later.

1969 After 20 years with the Rams as a player, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch leaves club to become athletic director at the University of Wisconsin. He is replaced by Public Relations Director Jack Teele, and John Sanders becomes Assistant General Manager. Team wins Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game, 23-20. Quarterback Roman Gabriel is unanimous choice as the NFL's Most Valuable Player.

1970 Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas in January heads Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With the completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams join San Francisco, Atlanta and New Orleans in the Western Division of the National Conference of the new 26-team National Football League. Rams finish second to 49ers with 9-4-1 record. George Allen's contract is not renewed.

1971 On April 15, owner Daniel F. Reeves dies of cancer in New York. His longtime friend and business associate, William A. Barnes, becomes President and General Manager. Tommy Prothro replaces Allen. Playing the toughest schedule in the NFL, the Rams finish with an 8-5-1 record, second to 49ers in the NFC West.

1972 In a history-making move, Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom trades the Baltimore franchise to Robert Irsay in exchange for the Rams. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves. The transaction was completed and announced on July 14. Rosenbloom, the most successful owner in the NFL over the last two decades, brings with him to Los Angeles Don Klosterman, Rosenbloom's general manager in Baltimore. After five years at Cal State Fullerton, Rams move training site to Cal State Long Beach. After 6-7-1 season, all coaches are dismissed.

1973 An observer in '72, Rosenbloom begins to make changes early in 1973, and they pay off quickly. His choice for head coach, former Detroit assistant Chuck Knox, leads team to 12-2 season, winningest in Rams history, and Knox becomes "Coach of the Year." Roman Gabriel is traded to Philadelphia and the new quarterback, former San Diego Charger John Hadl, is NFC "Player of the Year." Rams win NFC West title, but lose in first round of playoffs to Dallas. Other changes introduced by Rosenbloom include return to blue and gold uniforms. Club returns to Cal State Fullerton for summer training.

1974 Carroll Rosenbloom's son, Steve, takes over as Assistant to the President. After 3-2 start, Rams trade John Hadl to Green Bay for five draft choices in bold move that stuns the football world. Hadl's backup, James Harris, becomes starter and leads team to 10-4 record, its second straight NFC Western title and its first playoff victory since 1951 (a 19-10 win over Washington) before the Rams bow to Minnesota, 14-10, in NFC title game.

1975 With defense allowing second fewest points in NFL history over a 14-game season (135), Rams win third straight NFC Western title by completing 12-2 season. After playoff victory over St. Louis, however, they bow to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game. The 34-8 record over the last three years is best in the NFL.

1976 Rams win NFC West title for fourth straight year with 10-3-1 record then beat Dallas, 14-12, for their first playoff victory on the road before 24-13 NFC title game loss at Minnesota. Quarterback injuries mar season and rookie Pat Haden becomes fourth different playoff QB in four years under Knox. Rams' 351 points is highest in NFC.

1977 Rams spearhead new Coliseum configuration which reduces capacity from 91,038 to 71,039. With Lawrence McCutcheon setting new club career rushing record of 5,523 yards, the Rams (10-4) roll to their fifth straight division title before 14-7 playoff loss to Minnesota in Coliseum. Following the campaign Knox resigns to take Buffalo Bills head coaching post.

1978 On Feb. 1, Rosenbloom hires George Allen but releases Allen after second preseason game. Ray Malavasi becomes head coach and leads club to 12-4 mark for the sixth straight division title (tying NFL record). Rams beat Minnesota, 34-10, in playoff but lose NFC title to Dallas. Rams also announce move to Anaheim Stadium beginning in 1980.

1979 Carroll Rosenbloom dies April 2 and his widow, Georgia, becomes majority owner. Club moves to Rams Park in Anaheim, where offices and practice facilities are together. Despite multitude of injuries, team wins 7th straight division title to set NFL record, then beats Dallas (21-19) and Tampa Bay (9-0) in NFC Playoffs. Rams lose to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV, 31-19.

1980 With Anaheim Stadium's capacity set at 69,045, Rams sell out last six home games and finish with 11-5 record. Rams lead NFL in rushing for first time since 1957, gaining 2,799 yards. Rams set 15 club records and tie three others. Nolan Cromwell named consensus All-NFL and receives award as NFC Defensive Player of the Year. Rams enter playoffs as wild card and lose to Dallas, 34-13.

1981 Rams finish 6-10, missing playoffs for the first time since 1972. Nolan Cromwell and LeRoy Irvin named All-NFL. Irvin sets NFL record with 207 punt return yards in 37-35 win over Atlanta. Wendell Tyler rushes for 1,074 yards and ties Elroy Hirsch's club record of 17 touchdowns in a season. Rams sell out first seven regular season games at Anaheim Stadium.

1982 NFL players' strike wipes out seven games of the regular season schedule and the Rams finish last in the NFC with a 2-7 record. QB Bert Jones, acquired in draft day trade from Baltimore, misses last 5 games with a neck injury. In his place, Vince Ferragamo throws for 509 yards vs. Chicago, second highest in league history. Following the season Malavasi is dismissed.

1983 In one of the most dramatic turnaround years in NFL history, Georgia Frontiere begins by hiring former USC Coach John Robinson in February. Revamped front office engineers a dozen off-season trades. Eric Dickerson is drafted on the first round in April. Robinson installs new offense (single back) and new defense (3-4) while Frontiere signs all players on roster. Rams go 9-7 and enter playoffs as wild card team beating Dallas in Texas, 24-17, before losing to Redskins in Washington. Dickerson breaks NFL rookie rushing record (1,808 yards), sets five Ram records and is consensus All-Pro. Cromwell, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Dickerson make Pro Bowl. Robinson named NFC Coach of the Year.

1984 Rams make playoffs for second time in as many years after finishing with 10-6 mark. Rams host first ever playoff game at Anaheim Stadium before record crowd of 67,037 but lose to New York Giants in NFC wild card game. Again, Eric Dickerson is the offensive force behind the Rams' success as he rushes for 2,105 yards, breaking O.J. Simpson's NFL record of 2,003. Jack Youngblood sets Ram record by playing in his 201st consecutive game. Quarterback Jeff Kemp replaces injured Vince Ferragamo in Week Three and leads team to nine wins. Dickerson is named NFC Player of the Year and makes Pro Bowl along with Henry Ellard, Kent Hill and Doug Smith.

1985 Rams season falls just one game short when they lose to Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game. The defense and special teams play prominent roles in 11-5 regular season. Rams defense stifles Minnesota on one-inch line to preserve 13-10 victory as time runs out in Week Five. Ron Brown electrifies Anaheim Stadium crowd by returning two kickoffs for touchdowns against Green Bay to tie NFL record in Week Twelve. Eric Dickerson misses first two games but returns to rush for 1,234 yards. he sets an NFL playoff record by rushing for 248 yards against Dallas in first ever playoff win (20-0) at Anaheim Stadium. Nine Rams make NFC Pro Bowl team: Ron Brown, Jim Collins, Gary Green, Dale Hatcher, LeRoy Irvin, and four offensive linemen, Dennis Harrah, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith.

1986 Rams make playoffs for fourth consecutive year after posting a 10-6 regular season record. Rams acquire rookie Quarterback Jim Everett from Houston in major trade with Oilers. Everett throws three touchdown passes in debut against Patriots and starts last five games including playoff loss to Washington. Eric Dickerson rushes for over 1,000 yards for fourth consecutive season (1,821) and surpasses former Ram running back Lawrence McCutcheon as the teams all-time leading rusher with 6,968 yards in only four seasons. Defense plays important role in Rams' success, finishing fifth in total defense in the NFL, yielding 304 yards per game. Seven Rams selected to Pro Bowl - Dickerson, Carl Ekern, Jerry Gray, Dennis Harrah, LeRoy Irvin, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith.

1987 Rams fail to make the playoffs for the first time in last five seasons while finishing with a 6-9 record. NFL players' strike shortens season by one game while three games are played with non-union players. Rams acquire six draft choices (three No.

One's and three No. Two's over the next two years) from the Colts in blockbuster trade for Running Back Eric Dickerson. Charles White takes over for Dickerson and wins NFL rushing title by gaining 1,374 yards and is named to his first Pro Bowl as well as unanimous All-NFL.

1988 Rams qualify for the playoffs for the fifth time in six seasons under John Robinson, who becomes the winningest coach in club history with 58 wins. Rams lose NFC Wild Card Game to Minnesota after finishing with a 10-6 record. Team features wide open offense as Jim Everett sets four Ram passing records and ties a fifth while wide receiver Henry Ellard sets a Ram record for most catches in a season with 86. Defensively, the Rams tie a club record with 56 quarterback sacks which leads the league. Rams have five of the top 47 choices in draft and select RB Gaston Green and WR Aaron Cox on the first round. Five players are selected to the Pro Bowl - Jackie Slater, Henry Ellard, Tom Newberry, Doug Smith and Jerry Gray.

1989 Rams finish regular season with a 11-5 record and qualify for playoffs as a wild card entry. Team posts road playoff victories over Philadelphia and N.Y. Giants before losing to San Francisco in NFC Championship game. Rams' 13 wins are the most since 1978. Jim Everett becomes the first player in club history to pass for over 4,000 yards (4,310), while receivers Henry Ellard (1,382 yds.) and Flipper Anderson (1,146) are the first two receivers to gain over 1,000 yards in the same season. Anderson also sets NFL record with 336 receiving yards on 15 catches vs. New Orleans. Safety Vince Newsome tops defense with 89 tackles while Linebacker Kevin Greene registers 16.5 quarterback sacks. Jerry Gray, Kevin Greene, Tom Newberry, Jackie Slater, Doug Smith and Ellard make the Pro Bowl. Gray returns interception for a touchdown and is named the game's Most Valuable Player.

1990 Henry Ellard, (most receptions with 412 and yards with 7,037), and Jackie Slater (most games played with 209) both set Ram records as the team posts a disappointing 5-11 record. Ellard and Willie "Flipper" Anderson also become first receivers in Rams history to have consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons, a feat only two other NFL teams have accomplished. Rams spoil 49ers attempt to break NFL record of consecutive wins by beating San Francisco at Candlestick, 28-17. Jackie Slater and Jim Everett represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1991 Rams suffer through one of the most disappointing seasons in their history by finishing with a 3-13 record. The franchise loses a record 10 games in a row to finish the season. John Robinson resigns as head coach prior to the club's last regular season game. Tackle Jackie Slater becomes the first player in Ram history to play 16 seasons. Rams fail to have a player named to the NFL Pro Bowl for the first time since the game's inception in 1950.

1992 Rams hire former head coach Chuck Knox (1973-77) as head coach, replacing John Robinson. Rams select DT Sean Gilbert, from the University of Pittsburgh with third choice in the first round. By doubling its victory total from the previous year Los Angeles finishes 6-10. Rams deal eventual Super Bowl XXVII champions only loss at home 27-23 and set club record by overcoming a 24-point deficit in 31-27 win at Tampa Bay.

1993 NFL and Player Association representatives agree on a new free agency system for players with 5 years or more experience. Rams name Jim Everett and Sean Gilbert as transition players, giving Los Angeles the first right of refusal once their contracts expire. Rams select RB Jerome Bettis, from the University of Notre Dame with the 10th pick in the first round and he earns rookie of the year honors after rushing for 1,429 yards (2nd in NFL) including 212 yards at New Orleans in 23-20 Rams' victory. Bettis and DT Sean Gilbert, who led the team with 10.5 quarterback sacks, become first Rams since 1990 to appear in Pro Bowl.

1994 Rams sustain an active off-season of change in which club signs several free agents, including QB Chris Miller of Atlanta and DT Jimmie Jones of Dallas, and trades QB Jim Everett. Rams trade down in draft and have 10 choices in first six rounds, and seven in the first three. Auburn T Wayne Gandy is the club's first choice. Off the field on May 3, the Rams exercise a clause in their lease with the city of Anaheim that allows the club to terminate the lease within 15 months.

Green Bay Packers 36, RAMS 6

Milwaukee County Stadium, September 5, 1993

Cloudy, 68 degrees

The Rams were defeated by the Green Bay Packers 36-6 in Milwaukee Stadium. The Packers opened the scoring after downing a punt on the Rams' 1-yard line and stopping Cleveland Gary for a safety and 2-0 lead on the next play. The Rams responded with a K Tony Zendejas 31-yard field goal after CB Steve Israel recovered the football on the ensuing free kick. On the Packers next series, QB Brett Favre connected with WR Sterling Sharpe on a 50-yard touchdown pass and 9-3 lead. After a Rams punt, the Packers moved 54 yards in 11 plays for a K Chris Jacke 51-yard field goal and a 12-3 score. The Rams then punted and the Packers took over on their 5-yard line. On a 3rd-and-5 play from the Green Bay 10-yard line, CB Robert Bailey intercepted a Favre pass to WR Mark Clayton at the Packers' 38-yard line. On the ensuing possession, Zendejas ended a six-play, 24-yard drive with his second offering (32 yards) of the afternoon to close the score to 12-6. The Packers marched 76 yards on 10 plays to close the half with a Favre-to-Clayton 4-yard touchdown pass and a 19-6 halftime lead. The Packers then took the second half kickoff and moved 64 yards on 10 plays for Edgar Bennett's 11-yard run and a 26-6 advantage. After a Rams' punt, the Packers had a seven-play, 59-yard drive for the game's final touchdown on a Bennett 1-yard run. Leading 33-6 late in the fourth quarter, CB Terrell Buckley returned a Don Bracken punt 39 yards to the Rams' 21-yard line. Four plays later, Jacke finished the scoring with a 33-yard field goal.

San Francisco 35, RAMS 10

Anaheim Stadium, November 28, 1993
 Cloudy, 71 degrees

The Rams were defeated by Steve Young and the 49ers passing attack in Anaheim Stadium. The 49ers scored on their first possession of the game moving 72 yards in 10 plays culminated by a Rickey Watters 6-yard run and a 7-0 lead. The Rams responded with a 14-play, seven minute drive that ended with a Tony Zendejas 25-yard field goal, cutting the 49ers lead to 7-3. The 49ers then took the ensuing kickoff and marched 46 yards in six plays before Steve Young connected with Jerry Rice for a 39-yard score and a 14-3 lead. After two Rams punts were sandwiched around a Henry Rolling interception of Young, the 49ers drove 80 yards in eight plays, culminated with a Young-to-Watters 48-yard touchdown play and a 21-3 halftime lead. On the second play of the second half, Young hit John Taylor for a 76-yard touchdown and a 28-3 lead. After a Sean Landeta punt, the 49ers moved to the Rams 1-yard line and on fourth-and-goal Watters was hit for a 2-yard loss by Michael Stewart and Shane Conlan. Later the 49ers took possession on their 37-yard line and moved 56 yards in 10 plays before Young hit Rice for a 7-yard score and a 35-3 lead. The Rams took the ensuing kickoff and marched 68 yards in four plays before T.J. Rubley hit Henry Ellard in the end zone from 14-yards out on the 11th play of the drive.

Game #12

Phoenix 38, RAMS 10

Sun Devil Stadium, December 5, 1993

Clear, 65 degrees

The Rams were defeated by the Phoenix Cardinals on the strength of Ron Moore's four rushing touchdowns. The Cardinals took the opening kickoff and marched 77 yards in eight plays before Moore carried the ball 1-yard for the game's first score and a 7-0 lead. The Rams responded with an 11-play, 83-yard drive that resulted in a Tony Zendejas 22-yard field goal and a Cardinals 7-3 lead. After both teams exchanged punts, the Cardinals took control of the ball on their 17-yard line and marched 61 yards in 12 plays before Steve Beuerlein connected with Gary Clark on a 22-yard touchdown play giving the Cardinals a 14-3 lead. A T.J. Rubley pass attempt to Troy

Drayton was intercepted at the Cardinals 6-yard line to close the first half. The Rams opened the second half with a five-play, 27-yard drive that resulted in a blocked Zendejas field goal attempt (blocked by Keith Rucker). After the block, the Cardinals moved 30 yards in three plays culminated by a Moore 19-yard run for a touchdown and a 21-3 lead. Later Phoenix moved 54 yards in 10 plays for a Moore 1-yard score, increasing the Cardinals lead to 28-3 with one minute left in the third quarter. Jim Everett then replaced Rubley at quarterback, and after completing a 12-yard pass to Henry Ellard on his first play, was sacked and fumbled on his second, giving the Cardinals possession on their 11-yard line to start the fourth quarter. After a Ron Moore 2-yard run and two Steve Beuerlein incompletions, Greg Davis connected from 27 yards out to give the Cardinals a 31-3 lead. Following a Rams punt, the Cardinals marched 44 yards in three plays for a Ron Moore 1-yard score and a 38-3 advantage. The Rams used 16 plays to move 81 yards for an Everett-to-Drayton 4-yard score and the game's final score.

Game #13
RAMS 23, New Orleans 20
 Superdome, December 12, 1993
 Indoors, 69 degrees

The Rams defeated the New Orleans Saints in front of a soldout crowd. Jerome Bettis became the eighth rookie in NFL history to rush for 200 yards in a game with his 212 yards on 28 carries, despite sitting out the entire second quarter with a bruised abdomen. On the fourth play of the game, the Saints' Sam Mills stripped Bettis of the ball and returned it 30 yards for the game's opening score and a 7-0 Rams deficit. Later in the first quarter Roman Phifer scooped up a Fred McAfee fumble which was forced by Chris Martin and returned it 10 yards to the Rams' 47-yard line. The Rams followed with a 10-play, 49-yard drive that resulted in a Tony Zendejas 22-yard field goal closing the score to 7-3. On the Rams next possession, Bettis went around right end on the first play for a 71-yard touchdown run, the longest of the season for the Rams. The Rams led 10-7. After one quarter Bettis led the Rams offense with 125 yards rushing. Morten Andersen connected on two field goals for New Orleans in the second quarter to give the Saints a 13-10 halftime lead. The Saints Fred McAfee fielded the second half kickoff before the Rams Leon White stripped the ball loose and Deral Boykin carried it across the goal line for a 17-13 lead, just seconds into the second half. The Rams then drove 69 yards on 13 plays for a T.J. Rubley-to-Pat Carter 11-yard score. When the point after was blocked by Gene Atkins, the Rams led 23-13. With 10:18 remaining in the game, Dalton Hilliard capped an 11-play, 77-yard drive with a 2-yard run. The Rams defense held off two late New Orleans drives allowing the offense to take over on downs twice and seal the 23-20 victory.

Game #14
Cincinnati 15, RAMS 3

Riverfront Stadium, December 19, 1993
 Cloudy, 36 degrees

The Rams were defeated by the Cincinnati Bengals in near freezing weather. The Bengals opened the scoring in the first quarter after Rod Jones forced and then recovered a T.J. Rubley fumble on the Rams' opening possession of the game. The Bengals took over on the Rams' 32-yard line and used eight plays before settling for a Doug Pelfrey 43-yard field goal and a 3-0 lead. On the Rams next possession the team moved 78 yards in 18 plays before Tony Zendejas missed a 26-yard effort. After Pelfrey missed the extra point, the Bengals led 9-0. With less than 4:00 minutes remaining in the first half, the Rams pieced together a 10-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in a Zendejas 32-yard field goal and a 9-3 halftime deficit. The Bengals opened the second half with a 61-yard drive that was culminated by a Pelfrey 28 yard field goal. Despite rookie Jerome Bettis' 124-yard effort, the Rams were unable to get on track and the Bengals Pelfrey connected from 25 yard out to close the game's scoring with 6:33 remaining.

Game #15

Cleveland 42, RAMS 14

Anaheim Stadium, December 26, 1993

Cloudy, 67 degrees

The Rams were defeated by the Cleveland Browns 42-14 in their first game back at Anaheim Stadium following a three week road trip. Vinny Testaverde stole the show establishing a new NFL mark for completion percentage in one game, by connecting on 21 of 23 attempts, 91.3 percent. On the Rams side of the football, Henry Ellard recorded his 27th 100-yard receiving day, to increase his team standard. Los Angeles took the opening kickoff and marched 81 yards in 11 plays for a Jerome Bettis 1-yard score and a 7-0 lead. The Browns responded with a 14-play, 79-yard drive culminated by a Tommy Vardell 1-yard score to tie the game at 7-7. After a Rams punt, the Browns took possession at their 20-yard line and moved 80 yards in 10 plays for a Testaverde-to-Keenan McCardell 8-yard touchdown and a Browns' 14-7 lead. The Rams drove down the field to set up a 30-yard field goal attempt that was wide right when Tony Zendejas slipped on the natural turf. The Browns took the second half kickoff and marched 82 yards in 10 plays for another Testaverde-to-McCardell touchdown play from 28 yards out. With the Rams trailing 21-7, the Browns Mark Carrier took a Sean Landeta punt and returned it 56 yards for a touchdown increasing their lead to 28-7. After the Browns recorded an interception, Tommy Vardell scored from 1-yard out for his second score of the day and a 35-7 lead. On the ensuing kickoff Derald Boykin fumbled the ball and the Browns gained control on the Rams' 8-yard line. Four plays later, Kevin Mack scored from 1-yard out on fourth down to give the Browns a 42-7 lead. The Rams closed the scoring with a 23-yard Rubley-to-Flipper Anderson touchdown.

Game #16

RAMS 20, Chicago 6

Anaheim Stadium, January 2, 1994

Warm and sunny, 78 degrees

The Rams defeated the Chicago Bears in the season's finale. The Rams' Jerome Bettis trailed Dallas' Emmitt Smith by 35 yards for the NFL rushing title as the day began. Despite his 146 yards rushing on a team-record 39 carries, Bettis ended the season as the league's number two rusher with 1,429 yards, trailing Smith's 1,489. The Rams penetrated the Bears' 20-yard line in each of their first three possessions with drives of 43, 51 and 53 yards converting on two Tony Zendejas field goals to take a 6-0. After connecting on a 27-yard field goal, Chicago's Kevin Butler ranged wide right from 50-yards out, as the Rams remained in the lead at 6-3. With Bettis the main focus of the game, T.J. Rubley was able to connect with Troy Drayton for an 11-yard play action pass for the game's first touchdown and a Rams' 13-3 lead. After a Butler 53-yarder closed the score to 13-6, Jerome Bettis continued to ramble through the Bears defense and finish a 6:24 drive with a 4-yard touchdown and the game's final score. Bettis' rushing exploits in surpassing the 100-yard plateau marked only the second time all season the Bears had allowed a runner to hit triple figures. Practically unnoticed was Rubley's performance in completing 64.3 percent of his passes and Flipper Anderson's best day since December 15, 1991 when he caught seven passes. A stingy Rams defense ended the season by allowing a season-low 163 total yards and just 74 net yards through the air. Defensive tackle Sean Gilbert punctuated his berth to the 1994 Pro Bowl with a sack, improving his team-high mark to 10.5. The defense allowed just 10 first downs.
